Second Virtual Meeting of the UPT2S partnership via eTwinning and analysis of the COVID-19 situation.

Due to CoVid-19 the agenda of the project UPT2S has been modified. Needless to say, the members of the project do not intend to give up on their project, and they continue to work remotely.

On 11th May in order to continue developing the intellectual outputs of the Erasmus+ project UPT2S the partnership held their second virtual meeting via eTwinning.

During this second virtual meeting, the partners discussed the main issues that affected the project due to the coronavirus outbreak in the European countries.

The partnership agreed that the best option in order to complete this project and develop it efficiently was to request to the Spanish National Agency an extension of 6 months on the project calendar.

Therefore, on 11th May the project coordinator submitted a request of extension, according to the terms agreed by the partnership, to SEPIE (National Agency).

SEPIE has approved the application. Thus, the UPT2S project has been extended for 6 months. Currently, the new total duration of this project is 30 months and the new end date is 31/03/22.

Foreign travel currently is not allowed freely due to lockdown by Covid-19. For this reason, all partners agreed to postpone the second transnational meeting in France which was initially scheduled to be held 1st and 2nd June in Brest.

All partners agree that is important to keep an eye on the evolution of the virus in Europe during these next weeks. If everything goes well, they decided that the final the final decision about the exact date for the France Meeting will be decided in their next virtual meeting.

Currently the most important topic is the health and safety of the people. Remember, STAY AT HOME!
